Only Six Men Survive Plane Crash As US Transport Carrying 29 Men Crashes In Labrador Wilderness

WESTOVER FIELD, Mass.—United States Air Transport Command announced today there were only six survivors of the twenty-nine American military men aboard the transport plane that crashed in the Labrador wilderness Tuesday at midnight. A doctor who landed at the wreckage eight miles north of Goose Bay reported twenty-three killed in the crash.

Hard, driving, wet snow prevented any large scale rescue operations but doctors and medical supplies are being landed by helicopter in a space cleared within half a mile of the scattered, charred wreckage. The rescue party is made up of Canadian and American air force men who travelled overland with dog sleds to reach the wreckage last night.

CLOSE GATES IN HOLY LAND FIGHTING

JERUSALEM—British troops blocked the gates of Jerusalem's old wall city just before noon today as firing in the ancient maze of streets reached proportions which indicated a battle of sizeable magnitude had broken out between Arabs and Jewish inhabitants.

Closing of the gates barred further exodus of Jews and Arabs, who have been frantically moving out possessions in trucks throughout the morning. Many dead lying in the streets were reported.

ALL TOMMIES OUT BY AUGUST

LONDON—The British Government's intention to withdraw all troops from Palestine by August of next year was officially announced today in the House of Commons by Colonial Secretary C. Jones at the opening of a two-day debate on the Holy Land.

TRADE TALKS IMPASSE UP TO CABINET

OTTAWA—The impasse which developed in the Canadian-British trade talks regarding Britain's food contracts with Canada will be placed before the cabinet today. There is speculation if the contracts are not renewed, the export ban on farm products to the United States may be relaxed. The cabinet will take up the matter, discussed yesterday by the Liberal caucus, which involves British contracts for bacon, beef, cheese, eggs and wheat, amounting to a million dollars annually.

ROME PARALYZED BY GENERAL STRIKE

ROME—A paralyzing leftist-directed general strike gripped Rome today but many workers, apparently with their Christmas pay envelopes in mind, reported for duty and stood by in hope the work stoppage would be called off before nightfall. As the day wore on, however, there were no signs of any end of the strike.

Strong concentrations of police and troops took up stations throughout the city. An estimated 500,000 workers were made idle by the strike, called to protest unemployment in Rome where an estimated 80,000 persons are out of work.

HEAD-ON TRAIN CRASH TOLL HEAVY

NEUBRAUNFELS, Texas—Two Missouri-Kansas-Texas trains collided near here last night and exploded into flames, killing two men, injuring nine other persons and leaving three men missing—two of them crew members and the other a railroad inspector. The two trains crashed 10 miles south of here. The locomotives stacked on top of each other and the front cars were telescoped.

COAL MINE BLAST KILLS SIX

WILKES BARRE, Pa.—A gas explosion in the Franklin colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company today killed six men and injured at least three others. The mine is located just outside the city.

ANGLO-RUSSE TRADE TREATY APPROVED

LONDON—The Board of Trade announced today agreement had been reached on all main points of the British-Soviet trade pact, now under discussion at Moscow. Wheat and timber are the principal commodities Britain seeks from the Soviet Union, while the Russians want steel rails, machinery, electric generating equipment and other heavy goods from Britain.

DEMAND RUSSIANS HALT REMOVALS

LONDON—A firm United States demand upon Russia to halt removal of reparations from eastern Germany confronted Foreign Minister Molotov today and upon his answer may hinge the success or failure of the Four Big conference here. State Secretary Marshall yesterday accused the Russians of extracting German assets worth $500,000,000 a year while United States and Britain have been pouring in $700,000,000 to keep Germany alive.

URGE $100,000 MORE FOR ELIZABETH

LONDON—An all-party committee in the House of Commons recommended today a $100,000 increase in the yearly allowance to Princess Elizabeth, making her income $200,000. The committee proposed also that $50,000 annually be allowed to Prince Philip, her bridegroom.

Kelowna Trade Board And Rutland Reach Agreement On Property

Down Payment of $500 Made
As Both Parties Sign The Agreement

An agreement was signed on Tuesday between trustees of the Rutland B.C.F.C.A. and the Kelowna Board of Trade concerning the terms of disposal of the former Board of Trade property amounting to some seventy-three acres in Rutland.

About eighteen months ago the Board turned this property over to the Rutland B.C.F.C.A. for the sum of one dollar, providing however, that the land was not used for commercial or airport purposes.

The Board has now agreed to remove all restrictions on the property for the consideration of $50,000. The land has been valued at between $12,000 and $15,000. With the removal of the restrictions the Rutland B.C.F.C.A. trustees may do anything they please with the property—retain it for park purposes, as originally intended, sell it or subdivide the land and dispose of it in small parcels.

The agreement signed this week provides for a down payment of $500 by the Rutland group, with the remaining $2,500 to be paid before March 9. The restrictive clauses remain in force until the entire amount of $3,000 is paid.

PUBLIC WORKS HEADS REQUEST METER READER

City Engineer Says Impossible
For One Man to Read All Meters in City

5,500 METERS

Recommend Appointment of Harold Gale as Successor to Fred Swainson

Request for an assistant meter reader was made to city council Monday night by officials of the public works department who pointed out it is practically impossible for one man to read all the electric light meters in view of the ever-increasing population of the city.

Harry Blakeborough and George Meckling, engineer and assistant engineer, respectively, at the same time recommended the appointment of Harold Gale as foreman of the department of works in the streets and sidewalks department, replacing Fred Swainson, who recently retired.

Elaborating on the need for an assistant meter reader, it was pointed out that 5,500 meters are read every month, and that it is getting impossible for one man to carry out this work. Last month, an additional 75 meters were installed and 50 more will be installed in the recently completed wartime houses, Mr. Blakeborough and Mr. Meckling suggested that J. Goode be appointed assistant meter reader on a monthly salary.

The matter was referred to the chairman of the public works committee.

A Thing Of Beauty

Snow often makes a thing of beauty of the most commonplace of scenes. Here a little grove of evergreen trees behind the legislative buildings at Regina, Sask., looks like something out of a fairy tale.

The photo was made shooting almost straight into the sun, and the snow texture brought out with sparkling clarity.

Memorial Ice Arena Comes Under Fire At Legion Meeting

BELIEF that the city should dispose of part or all of the civic centre property and use some of the money for the construction of the proposed Memorial Ice Arena to offset the rising costs of labor and materials for the construction of the building, was expressed by several members at the general meeting of the Canadian Legion held Wednesday night. Exponents of this proposal thought the arena should be built in the city park, and that the new city hall, library and museum should be built on Abbott Street overlooking the Queen Elizabeth Rose Garden.

Members went on record urging the war memorial committee to take necessary steps in getting the arena constructed as soon as possible, and a committee of three was appointed to confer with the committee along these lines.

It was reported over a week ago that the estimates on the building were $65,000 to $100,000 over the amount already on hand for the ice arena, and several members expressed the opinion that the committee should endeavor to see what could be constructed for the amount on hand, leaving out many of the original "frills" of the arena.

One veteran pointed out, however, that under the agreement of sale between the city and S. M. Simpson, the latter has first option on the property if it is not used for a civic centre.

Another member said the civic centre land is the best revenue-producing property in the city, and he thought Mr. Simpson could be persuaded into allowing the city to sub-divide the lots and sell it for retail purposes.

However, when the park was suggested for a probable arena site, it turned to Page 16, Story 2.

Birthday Present

Byron "Boss" Johnson Elected Head B.C. Liberal Party By Eight Votes

Byron "Boss" Johnson's 57th birthday, celebrated yesterday, was a twin event in the story of the British Columbia Liberal party.

Within two hours of the final session of a two-day party convention, the new Westminster Legislature member was chosen leader, and (2) Premier John Hart announced that next week he would take Johnson to the Lieutenant Governor and ask that the leadership of the government be transferred to the new chief.

The genial industrialist edged out Attorney General Gordon S. Wismer 475 to 467. Then on Wismer's motion, the convention declared the choice unanimous.

Delegates also elected Arthur Laing, of Vancouver, as president of the provincial Liberal Association. His selection to succeed Dr. W. J. Knox, of Kelowna, represented a slap in the face at die-hard Liberal supporters in the province's present Coalition government.

The new president had proclaimed himself an opponent of the prolonged Coalition, and just before his election, he urged that a time limit be set to the present one.

"Decrepit Old Men"

His pleas that "the parent associations executive be purged of its decrepit old men," and his assertions that "it's high time that people stand by their convictions," were answered by his own election. He won by a vote over Donald Macdonald, of Trail.

ELECTRICAL MEN MAY GET SALARY BOOST

Pentiction Electrical Workers Awarded Increase—Similar Boost Expected Here

Santa Claus will probably visit the homes of many electrical workers employed by the city before December 25, and they will benefit to the extent of having their wages increased.

Some time ago, the electrical workers, members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, requested the city for an increase in wages, but the matter was shelved pending settlement of a wage dispute between the municipality of Pentiction and its electrical employees.

Last week, a board of arbitration unanimously awarded the electrical workers an increase in wages, and in view of this, a similar increase is expected to be given to Kelowna's employees. When the matter was discussed at last Monday night's council meeting, Alderman J. J. Ladd requested that it be referred to committee.

Under the new agreement signed in Pentiction, the foreman is to receive $11 daily, against the $35 a month received formerly. The sub-foreman gets $10.45; journeyman linemen $9.75; first groundsmen $7.00; second year groundsmen $7.80; first year apprentices $7.00; second year apprentices $7.45; and third year apprentices $8.65.

TRADES LICENCES

City council Monday night granted licences to the following people: John Rempel, 953 Corydon, Christmas tree vendor; Hugo Smaltz, soliciting orders; James A. Hewer, and R. A. Kimber, Christmas tree vendor.

BY-ELECTION DATE IN YALE IS REQUESTED

Howard Green, Progressive-Conservative member for Vancouver South, yesterday in the House of Commons called upon Prime Minister Mackenzie King to set a date for the by-election in Yale constituency.

Mr. Green requested the government to set a date for the by-election before the Christmas recess. He also paid tribute to Hon. Grote Stirling, who recently retired due to ill health, during the debate on the Geneva Trade agreements.

WOULD DIVIDE STORE

Request from the owner of Krumpal's store on Bernard Avenue to divide the store into two sections was received by city council Monday night. The matter was referred to the building inspector and the fire marshal for a report.

Keen Interest Being Taken In Election At Peachland And Glenmore On Saturday

Remand Two Men Until December 18

Peter McIsaac and Frank L. White to Appear on Charge of Retaining Stolen Bonds

Peter McIsaac, 42, and Frank L. White, 33, who were arrested December 4 when police found three thousand dollars in bonds believed to have been stolen in the June 14 burglary of Whillits and Gaudes, real estate agents, were remanded until next Thursday when they appeared before a Vancouver magistrate this morning.

McIsaac and White are charged with retaining stolen property over $25. The bonds, which police say are part of the $100,000 loot taken in the local robbery, were found wrapped in a paper bag on a pan hanging behind a kitchen stove.

Meanwhile police are continuing the investigation in the belief that more bonds are in the city.

INSTAL YULE TREE LIGHTS ON BERNARD

Christmas Trees Are Being Placed in Centre of Bernard Avenue

Two Additional Lighted Trees
Being Erected This Year,
Says Engineer

The main street of Kelowna has definitely taken on a Christmas atmosphere. Harry Blakeborough, city engineer, today supervised the erection of Christmas trees on Bernard Avenue, and he said this year three large trees will be decorated with Christmas tree lights, instead of one as in former years.

Mr. Blakeborough said one lighted tree will be placed in front of the Royal Anne Hotel, another in front of Chapin's restaurant, and the third in front of the O. L. Jones furniture store at the intersection of Bernard and Ellis street.

In addition to the lighted trees, smaller shrubs are being placed between the lamp posts.

Mr. Blakeborough explained the trees would have been put up earlier in the week, but the electrical workers have been too busy doing other priority work. At the council meeting Monday night he said another line is present being run into the power house in preparation for the new switchboard which is expected to arrive from England early in 1948. When the new switchboard arrives, it will alleviate a considerable amount of trouble in the handling of power lines. At the present time, city officials are requesting ratepayers to use as little electricity as possible between the hours of 4 p.m. and 6 p.m.

MAYOR JONES WINS COAST ELECTION

Vancouver Civic Centre Bylaw Defeated by Ratepayers by Big Majority

VANCOUVER — Mayor Charles Jones today dropped the "Acting" after gaining a majority of 4,265 votes over both his opponents in yesterday's civic election. He defeated Mrs. Effie Jones, no relation of his, by polling a total of 24,133 votes. Peter McAllister, Independent, had only 1,456.

Alderman A. W. Fisher and R. K. Gerwin, members of the Civic Non-Partisan Association headed by Mayor Jones, were re-elected along with former Alderman Halford D. Wilson, Civic Improvement Group, and Mrs. Laura Jamieson, CCF. The Non-Partisan Association made a clean sweep of the school board elections, winning four vacancies, while the CCF took two of the three board vacancies.

In the civic centre bylaw, calling for the setting aside of property for Vancouver's civic centre buildings, ratepayers defeated the proposal by a large majority. Final figures are not yet available.

DRAFT BYLAW FOR RECEPTACLES

Names of the partners in the Vancouver Advertising Agency that will install garbage receptacles on Bernard Avenue in the near future, were revealed at the council meeting on Monday night. They are T. B. Hamilton, R. P. Walrod, and H. A. Lethbridge.

On the recommendation of Alderman Jack Horn, the necessary bylaw authorizing the placing of garbage receptacles on the streets will be drawn up. The firm stated each can will have four large and four small advertisements on the sides of the cabinets, and it asks for sole right to place the cans elsewhere in the city.

Three-way Fight for Reeveship Develops at Peachland—Glenmore having Election for First Time in Ten Years as Three Men Contest Two Vacant Council Seats

Veterans Seek Office

RATEPAYERS in two nearby municipalities are now in the midst of one of the most interesting election campaigns in years. For the first time in ten years an election is being held in Glenmore, three candidates contesting the two vacancies on the municipal council, while at Peachland, three men are seeking the position of reeve.

Municipal voters took to the polling booths in the municipal offices in both Peachland and Glenmore next Saturday. Polls are open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Eagerly awaited results should be known shortly after the polls close. Officials of both municipalities anticipate a heavy vote in view of the interest taken in the election campaign this year.

Reeve Alfred Ernest Miller is seeking re-election in Peachland, and is one of the three in the fight to become the chief officer.

Reeve Miller took office in the spring of this year when A. J. Chidley resigned due to ill health.

Also seeking the post are Charles O. Whinton and Fitzpatrick V. Vernon. Both served on the municipal council in previous years. They are both fruit growers at Peachland and have lived in the district for a number of years.

In the municipal council for next year, Peachlanders are faced with a situation that is not new to them. With three vacancies to fill, all were chosen by the reeve and councillors at their first meeting of the new year. This procedure may be followed again.

Two Bankhead Candidates
Of this year's four-man Glenmore council, terms of Jack Snowsall and W. J. Rankin expire on December 31. Terms of office of Councillors G. Mowbray and L. E. Marshall are good until the end of 1948. Councillor Rankin declined to run for office again.

The three men seeking the support of voters to put them in the two vacant council seats are Mr. Snowsall, C. M. Lipsett and Dr. M. J. Butler.

Mr. Snowsall has served on the council for the past 10 years. He is a past president of the Glenmore Athletic Society and is now director of athletics in the community school. He has also served for several years on the executive of the B.C. F.G.A.

Mr. Lipsett, a veteran of World War II, is an active member of the Kelowna Lions Club and of the Bankhead Heights Association. He has also served on the executive of the Canadian Legion.

During the war, Mr. Lipsett was officer in charge of transportation on the Alaska highway for the Northwest Command of the R.C.A.F.

Dr. Butler, a dentist in Kelowna, also saw service in the last war. Like Mr. Lipsett, this is his first try at municipal politics. He has recently made his home in the Bankhead district. He is active in the Bankhead Heights Association and a member of the Lions Club.

Dr. Butler graduated from Toronto university where he was president of the students' parliament. He is also on the executive of the Central Okanagan Boy Scouts' Association.

Third Term
Reeve C. Henderson, of Glenmore, elected by acclamation a nomination day last Monday, will be serving his third term as the reeve. He has been on the council and on the school board for several years.

George Hume, Glenmore's representative on the board of trustees of Kelowna School District 23, is starting his 22nd year of such service to the Glenmore community. He is the present chairman of the trustees, having been chosen at the board's first meeting this year. He acted as secretary for several years while on the Glenmore school board.

Valley Fruit Growers To Benefit From Publication On Frost Data Which Will Be Released Shortly

Fruit growers throughout the Okanagan valley will benefit from a frost data publication which will shortly be released by the meteorological division of the department of transport, it was revealed at a meeting of the advisory committee of the department of trade and industry at a meeting held in Kelowna last Friday.

J. T. Gawthrop, director of the regional development division stated that publication of the frost data as requested by the committee, and that it would be issued shortly, together with a map showing the location of public weather reporting stations. The publication will be released in the fall, as well as the average frost free period.

Region three of the advisory committee comprised the North and South Okanagan, Grand Forks, Greenwood and the North and South Similkameen, and last week's meeting was presided over by Ben Hoy, Kelowna, representing the Okanagan, Oliver, Pentiction and Vernon attended the conference. R. S. O'Meara, trade commissioner, also was present.

In a report on the operation of a new box shock plant in Princeton this summer, the committee was informed that power and lumber supply were not satisfactory. A downward revision of power costs is anticipated and after some discussion of timber supply, it was recommended that the department concerned take what steps it could to

Settle Argument

Does the bank of a creek legally belong to a home-owner, the city, or the province?

This was the poser that came up at last Monday night's council meeting when a local taxpayer requested the city to remove a large willow tree on the bank of a creek. The property owner claimed it was the city's responsibility to remove the tree. After the matter was discussed at some length, it was City Engineer Harry Blakeborough who put Council right on the matter.

Mr. Blakeborough said it had been previously ruled that a taxpayer's property adjoining a creek, extends to the centre of the stream, and that if a ratepayer owns property on both sides of the stream, the entire creek passing through his property legally belongs to him.

A Citizenship Course

With the official creation of a Canadian citizenship status a year ago, Canada made some effort to impress upon those persons taking out citizenship papers their responsibilities and their privileges. In order to accomplish this the actual granting of the citizenship papers was taken out of the merely casual category and clothed with some dignity. This, of course, was all to the good, but it did not go far enough.

This paper, in common with a growing number, has maintained for many years that there should be an educational course for those desiring to obtain Canadian citizenship papers and one of the requirements should be the passing of the course. Admittedly, the questions asked by the examining official are designed to ascertain whether or not the prospective citizen has at least a rudimentary background of Canadian affairs, but, at the best, such knowledge need only be very sketchy.

Prospective citizens are not required to study any particular educational course. The Department of State has not as yet made this a requirement of the granting of citizenship. However, the Department of State has looked with favor on the providing of voluntary courses for the education of prospective Canadian citizens.

Kelowna School District is now prepared to provide a voluntary course of instruction to all persons who have recently been granted Canadian citizenship or who have filed their intention of becoming a Canadian citizen.

In this area, these people now number nearly one hundred and fifty. They are being called together on Monday night next for a general discussion about the course which will be inaugurated in January. The course will consist of such subjects as the privileges and duties of Canadian citizenship; the story of the development of Canada; the government of Canada; the geography of Canada; assistance in speaking and reading English.

These are all subjects in which a person intending to become a Canadian citizen should be interested—if he is interested in becoming a Canadian citizen in fact as well as in name and privileges. The course should appeal to all those approaching citizenship in the right spirit.

Some of the potential citizens may feel a little reluctant to apply for the course because their English is not of the best. Actually, it is these people the sponsors of the course hope to reach. As indicated in the above agenda, there is the hope that assistance may be given in the speaking and reading of English, and those who now find this difficult, may be assured that they will find attendance at the course very profitable. Inability to speak or read English well should be an incentive rather than a deterrent to attend the proposed course.

The purpose of the course is simply to enable prospective citizens to better equip themselves to become good Canadians; to give them a background of the history of the country, its physical features and the manner in which its government functions; to outline the privileges which a Canadian citizen has and to remind him of the responsibilities those privileges carry with them. The meeting on Monday night should be a crowded one as no person who intends to become a Canadian citizen can afford to pass by this course. Indeed, the taking of such a course is one of the responsibilities assumed when one indicates his intention of becoming a citizen of this country.

The Coast And Highways

A few weeks ago this column had occasion to comment that the attitude of the coast towards the hinterland of the province seemed to be undergoing a change for the better and that coast people apparently were beginning to realize that much of their prosperity depended upon those hitherto scorned hinterlands. One of the grounds for this comment was an editorial in the Vancouver Province.

This week, however, in urging greater highway construction in the Fraser Valley, the Vancouver Province used those arguments which annoy the people of the hinterlands. "The lion's share of the gasoline taxes of the province are collected in the area between Hope and the Gulf of Georgia," said the Province, "half the people of the province live in this district and the roads are in a mess."

It is this sort of argument which discourages the people of the Interior. For the past many decades they have felt that the southwest corner of the province and Vancouver Island have received the great bulk of the highway appropriations and have long cast envious eyes upon the highways in that area, wishing their approach the same standards. It is not surprising if they cannot become enthusiastic about—or, even if they take something of a jaundiced view of—the suggestion that millions of dollars be spent on a new highway on the north side of the Fraser and more millions for a bridge at Chilliwack, until some of the main roads in the Interior are put into a condition comparable at least with that which is now described as "a mess" in the Fraser Valley.

Hon. E. C. Carson seems to be striving to build an adequate trunk highway throughout the province and there are indications that for the first time in their history the various Interior centres will be linked with other sections of the province by a network of good roads. The Okanagan, the Kootenays, the Cariboo are desperate for better highway facilities; not only for their own advantages, but also to benefit the populous southwest corner of the province.

Until these areas are at least provided with one good connecting link with the other areas, surely the suggestion of a second main highway up the Fraser Valley is a little premature. Especially when it is based upon the argument that because there are more people in the area, the greater proportion of the highway appropriation should be spent in that area.

Additional highways are needed in that section of the province, admittedly. But where in the province are improved roads not needed? The department should base its construction program upon the need and not simply upon the number of voters who happen to be located in a small area.

The tragedy in the world today is not that so many bad men are active in it but that so many good men are inactive and inadequate. There are too many who get burned up about everything wrong but do not burn to put anything right.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

By "The Beaver"

LET THE CHRISTMAS bells ring out—let the choristers sing to their hearts content and let the crowds jump over the counters in the mad frenzy to do their Christmas shopping. Just give me a couple of shillings and a bowl of luke-warm water to ease my suffering corns, and I'll be quite happy.

YES, SANTA CLAUS CAN come in two weeks time insofar as I'm concerned, but between now and the time he makes his appearance, I'll just sit back and wait for the festive season. Reason? Last Saturday night, as the town clock was ticking off the last few minutes before 9 o'clock, the better-half and I made our last purchase, and now our Christmas gifts are carefully bundled up, ready to deposit in the post office.

IN THE PAST I'VE been a member of that Leave-it-to-the-last-minute school with the result that come Christmas eve, my arms, my feet, in fact my whole body has felt as if I had been run over by a steam-roller. But not this year. Every night that I've gone home this week, I've gazed at those Christmas presents sitting on the chest-of-drawers, and a certain feeling of satisfaction overcomes me—satisfaction in knowing that the annual chore is over.

BUT EVEN AT THAT, I still had to make good use of my rugby tactics taught when I was going to high school. At times it was almost necessary to do some broken field running, while on other occasions I found myself playing interference for the better half who was bringing up the rear.

SHOPPING IS A BUG-BEAR to most men I have spoken to, yet the male sex invariably seems to be "Joed" into going along like a meek little lamb while the female sex decides what size panties Aunt Millie wears, or if Uncle Joe takes size 11 or 12 in socks. And then there's the little nieces and nephews who enter the picture, even though they get into your hair by insisting on playing cowboys and Indians on the living room floor—one has to ponder if they are four, five or six. You say they should be old enough to be interested in a chess-in-law and daughter. I found myself playing interference for the better half who was bringing up the rear.

AND THEN THERE'S THE snippy sales clerk who seems to have forgotten that the "customer is always right" that leaves one standing for at least five minutes before waiting upon you, or who approaches one with a "what do you want" attitude.

BUT TO COME BACK to my aching muscles and tired feet. I was loaded up with parcels (oh yes, I think the wife had a roll of Christmas paper in one hand), when she decided to get another pair of Christmas tree lights. She wasn't quite sure whether she wanted the new-fangled type—the kind that seems to be always blowing bubbles—or the ordinary set—but she finally settled for the latter. "Give the lady some money, dear," she said. I looked at her in a hopeless manner, with the parcels piled high in my arms and the end of a Christmas tree sticking sticking in my mouth. All I could do was to gesture toward my inside pocket. "Oh, you poor thing," she said, proceeding to take the end of the stocking out of my mouth, and placing the parcels on the counter. "There, do you feel better now?"

"WHERE IN THE NAME OF Julius Caesar is that brat who just took a chunk out of my leg?" was the first thing I heard. "Now dear! Be a good boy. Remember this is our Christmas shopping we're doing," said the better-half trying to bring my blood pressure down. The clerk was paid for the lights—I held my arms up as the parcels were piled into position again—took a deep breath and headed for the door. "Oh mister," exclaimed an excited voice, "be careful, you're taking all the Christmas decorations with you." My wife guided me

MUNICIPALITY OF PEACHLAND

This is just a brief statement to let you know I am willing to carry on as your Reeve for another term.

I have served during part of 1947 as Reeve, and am acquainted with conditions prevailing throughout the Municipality, and am well aware of the problems confronting the District and am resolved to devote my time to help solve these problems to the betterment of the citizens of Peachland.

In these days of rising costs it is difficult to run any organization to the satisfaction of everybody, and as you all know this cannot be done. However, as far as I am concerned, the interests of the people of Peachland are my interests, and, if I am elected as Reeve, I shall endeavor to render the maximum of service with the minimum of cost.

Regarding our roads, owing to lack of equipment it is difficult to maintain these as we would like to, but, it is my intention to do everything possible to have our roads in as good shape as possible.

In connection with our Domestic Water System plans are in hand to develop an adequate supply of water for domestic, lawn and also fire-fighting service. This idea has my heartiest support.

If you see fit to return me as Reeve for the ensuing term of two years it will be my aim to look after the interests of the Municipality, in every way, and to see that we get a square deal in all our activities and requirements.

Thanking you for the support you have already given me in electing me as a Councillor and then as your Reeve, and trusting you will again see your way to cast your vote for A. E. Miller.

SKI BOWL CHRISTIES

By BILL SAUNDERS

KELOWNA SKI BOWL, Sun., December 7.—The above caption is very appropriate to start my skiing day! Today, the first day of action and what happens? We sleep in! I have developed an art of shutting off the timepiece without so much as lifting an eyelid! That was only the start of a perfect day of "eight balls" and I behind each one! Well, we do get away, and maybe it's a little late, and Dot's been up for hours, so she says!

Anyway, with spirits high, we are off to the high white yonder and all its problems including maneuver number two, the ease of the tangled chains! Those hateful grip smelters! The more you try to sort them out the more confused your lady helpers become. It's hard to explain to them what you want done when they are flat on their backs under the car.

As I said before this was the first Sunday of sking at the bowl

this year. It had snowed enough to give us a chance to warm up the old planks and get our ski legs back under us. Even so, they did some funny things on their (the legs) first outing, speaking purely personally, of course! There was in evidence lots of nice new shiny equipment which to the casual observer could mean a fair percentage of new enthusiasts to the sport starting on their way to healthy fun.

CHALET PROBLEMS

The biggest of the chalet problems is the furnishing of the interior and along these lines there are two schools of thought. However, with the gift of a chesterfield chair and hussack through the kindness of Mr. McKenzie, genial manager of Mc & Mc, it appears that there is only one way to do it. The basic reason for the chalet was comfort for both the skiers and spectators and that boils down to a furnished interior. Any suggestions on this?

SKI INSTRUCTIONS

Latest news along this line is that Peter Vajda will be on this hill on the 15th and 16th of this month. He will be available for instruction in the art of sking for which he will charge a fee.

For those who prefer a bit of visual education along the skiing lines a ski reel is booked for the theatre this coming week-end. It's entitled, "Ski Belles". Can I help plugging it?

Kelowna In Bygone Days

From the Files of The Kelowna Courier

TEN YEARS AGO

Thursday, December 9, 1937

Approximately $1,300 has been collected by various efforts in a gigantic drive to aid the young Kelowna sportsman, Roy Longley, who lost his leg in a shooting accident some weeks ago.

A big civic welcome is being planned for Mrs. Isabel Stillingfleet, Canada's champion packing queen who won the British Empire honors at the Imperial Fruit Show in England in October. She is expected to return home next week.

Kelowna's building figures this year are higher than for any 12 months period since 1929. It was revealed to the City Hall today. The total for the 11 months of 1937 has now reached the imposing figure of $151,945.

Grave concern as to the outcome from an Okanagan standpoint, of suspected changes in Imperial preference and the possibility of the loss of dump duties from alterations of the Canada-U.S. trade treaty was voiced by a meeting of fruit and vegetable men.

Four proposed airplane landing sites—including one at the north end of the city and the Rutland airport—are being considered by a joint senior and junior board of trade committee in an endeavor to provide a suitable landing field for Kelowna in the event the air mail route to Alaska is routed via the Okanagan.

A law to make pedestrians walk against oncoming traffic was suggested to the Junior Board of Trade by Nestor Izowsky, chairman of the New Projects Committee.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Thursday, December 8, 1927

A shipment of Christmas trees, mostly secured on the west side of Okanagan Lake, went forward from this city to Swift Current, Sask., last week. The car contained several thousand little trees, mostly firs.

Annual bazaar held by the Ladies Aid of First United Church was a very successful affair, a sum of $400 being raised for the organ fund.

The Occidental cannery closed down for the season last Thursday, and to celebrate a long and successful run, all connected with the factory attended a social gathering held in the cannery building the following evening, when a highly enjoyable time was had by all present.

Messrs. A. K. Loyd and C. Tucker scored a great triumph with the fruit they collected and exhibited at the winter fair in Vancouver, capturing first place in the district exhibits with a total of 915 points, a margin of 70 points over the nearest competitor, Salmon Arm. For plates and collections, they won a total of 27 first, 26 second, 10 third and nine fourth prizes.

Hon. S. F. Tolmie, recently chosen as provincial leader addressed a gathering of about 250 Conservatives in the Morrison Hall and was given an enthusiastic reception.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Thursday, December 8, 1917

Private H. W. Roberts, of the K. L.O. bench, who was severely wounded some weeks ago, was reported last week as having died of his injuries.

James Trenwin, who departed from his usual custom last week and instead of placing samples of his regular selling lines in his windows, he showed a collection of apples. Sixty-seven varieties were placed on exhibition. The collection was the property of W. Kirkby.

K. Iwashita and a number of other local Japanese returned yesterday from Vernon where they had been before the military service board and tribunal. Four Japanese from Kelowna have passed in the A class. All four have put in claims for exemptions as ranchers or agricultural producers. It is believed that the claims of two of them will be allowed.

A change of some importance took place on the first of the month when Archie Johnson's interest in the Jenkins Co. Ltd. was taken over by George Kennedy.

The government dredge has been working at the head of Okanagan River between the lake and the bridge where the outlet from the lake has been further reduced so as to hold the lake at its present level. The many months of very dry weather has permitted nearly all the creeks to run dry and there is very little water running now into the lake, with the result that it has reached a very low level. The dredge crew has raised and narrowed the spillway in the controlling bulkhead at the outlet. This, of course, will make it impossible for the dredge to again enter the lake until the flow in the river greatly increases.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Thursday, December 5, 1907

The curling club is doubling the size of the curling rink and fitting up the observation room more comfortably, both much needed improvements, and as soon as some frosty weather arrives there should be ample opportunity to practice the "roarin' game."

H. H. Millie is installing a complete metallic circuit for his telephone system instead of the ground system and is putting in a new switchboard with a capacity of 150 phones. He says the improvements, which represent a large sum of money, will give a vastly better service than heretofore.

Monday was an unlucky day for the C.P.R. First, through some hitch in the engine room, the Aberdeen failed to slow down while coming into port and ran into her own barge, smashing a big pile on the wharf like a toothpick and crumpling up about six inches of her stem from the deck to near the water line. On leaving port, the Aberdeen somehow got in the way of the Okanagan, which was coming in, and the latter struck her fairly on the starboard bow about eight feet aft of the damaged stem cutting through the guard and tearing a large hole in her hull almost to the water level.

Twelve motorists paid fines of $2.50 into city police court last week for various parking offences, most of them infractions against the one-hour parking by-law.

For having liquor in a restaurant, C. Whitehorn was fined $50 in city police court December 4.

For carrying a loaded firearm in a motor vehicle, K. Worrall was fined $10 in district police court December 2.

Does the man who rushes through his work really accomplish more?

Very rarely, I think. For such a man is using emotion instead of his head. He concentrates on haste instead of efficiency. Before he finishes one thing he is mentally rushing on to the next. So he never does anything thoroughly.

Moreover, the unfortunate effects of such a temperament are felt in many directions. By his nervous actions and rapid-fire speech, Mr. Rush creates a feeling of tension and confusion in other people. Thus he multiplies his own inefficiency.

Speed is desirable only when it is the result of sound planning, increased skill, and the elimination of waste motion.

Development Of Bennett Hardware Reflects Faith In Kelowna And District

A firm that has become well known in the Okanagan during the past decade and a half, will mark a new phase in its business development this week when it holds the official opening of its remodelled and modernized premises on Bernard Avenue. The firm is the Bennett Hardware store which has been completely renovated and opened in time to enable shoppers to take advantage of Christmas bargains. What was formerly a warehouse is now included in the main store which presents an exemplary appearance as the latest in hardware store styling.

Reconstruction, costing several thousand dollars, has co-ordinated two buildings into one unit, and the whole edifice has had a complete face-lifting. From the street it presents an appearance completely in the modern manner, an achievement brought about both through its design and through the employment of the latest building materials. Lavish use has been made of chromium, glass and vitrolite, the latter in a smart color combination. Ultra-modern windows have been installed and above panels of glass brick in varying sizes serve both to admit light and entrance the keynote of modernity.

As a result of the alterations, the floor space of the store has been more than doubled. The balcony in the front portion of the store has been removed and the ceiling lowered, and as many beams as possible removed in order to present a clear view of the entire store. It offers to the prospective home-maker practically every requisite in home-making through the display of garden tools, kitchen equipment and other small wares on the main floor to a wide selection of useful gifts.

A new note in the use of building materials has been struck in the firm's business offices located at the rear of the premises. W. A. C. Bennett, proprietor, has his office finished in birch plywood panelling, and the fine grain of the lumber gives a pleasing effect. The bookkeeping and cashier's office is also finished in the same design, and both offices are sound-proof throughout.

The store is airy and well-ventilated and provides a cool, unhurried atmosphere in which the would-be purchaser or the "I'm just looking" shopper can determine his or her taste in household needs.

TOOLS FOR HOME AGAIN IN STOCK AT BENNETT'S

The "handy man around the house" will find everything to fill his needs at the Bennett hardware store. No longer need father make the excuse that he hasn't a wrench to put the new washer in the leaking tap.

Bennett's can supply it, and the washer as well, for that matter. Featured in their hardware department, Bennett's have a handsome display panel showing tools for every possible need. Workmen's tools, as well as those for the home "putt-er", are available, and the manner in which Bennett's have put their stock on display shows at a glance just what is to be had.

household furnishings of all kinds.

Owing to their policy of buying up in large quantities any article which they feel to be good value, Bennett Hardware today have on hand a large stock of many items still on the "hard to get" list such as model radios, electric stoves, washers and refrigerators, which will be made available to the public in the newly renovated store this week.

ALUMINUM WARE IS BACK AGAIN

The housewife whose kitchen equipment has "given up the ghost" during the war years, will be relieved to see that it is now possible to re-stock up on enamel cooking utensils, or even some of the aluminum ware which is returning to the market. With the ending of the war, aluminum can now return to the domestic market. This product is now available at the Bennett Hardware store in less expensive sheet aluminum utensils, or in the heavier more expensive—but built to last a life time—saucepans, roasters and double boilers.

Dish pans, stew kettles, preserving kettles, tea kettles and coffee pots are also making their reappearance in this popular hard-wearing and stain-resistant material. As for pressure cookers, that item has just about become a "must" on every housewife's list, and would make an ideal Christmas present.

Other kitchen gadgets to be found are step-ladders and laundry equipment.

New Premises Of Bennett Hardware Store Rated Finest In B.C. Interior

CONTINUING 17 years of ever-increasing service to Kelowna and district shoppers, Bennett Hardware officially opened its newly-renovated quarters this week, and the new premises are rated the most modern in the interior of the province. Bennett Hardware is the oldest established hardware business in Kelowna, having been started by David Leckie in 1904. In view of the restricted shopping area around the turn of the century, the Bank of Montreal used the front portion of the store to carry on business and in 1912, Mr. Leckie extended the building at the rear and added a second story to the store.

Mr. Leckie installed special wall fixtures which made it look one of the finest hardware stores in British Columbia at that time. In August, 1930, Mr. Bennett purchased the business outright, and followed this up by establishing stores in Vernon and Penticton. In recent years, subsequent to the end of the war, he has extended the business greatly in both places.

In the spring of 1947, the Bennett Hardware built a warehouse, tin-smithing and plumbing shop and modern display room extending from the rear of the Bernard Avenue store to Lawrence Avenue.

W. A. C. BENNETT HAS DEVELOPED THREE STORES

Has Had Faith in the Okanagan Since Coming to Valley in 1930

Progress has been the watchword of W. A. C. Bennett, M.L.A., who has developed a chain of three hardware stores in the Okanagan Valley since coming here in 1930. At completion of these premises, remodeling of the main store on Bernard Avenue commenced, and is now completely remodelled and will compare favorably with any hardware store in Western Canada. Commencing in 1948, the remodeling and modernizing of the Crowley block which adjoins the present premises of the Bennett Hardware store, will be commenced and when completed, the hardware store will have double the floor area, carrying a complete line of furniture, household appliances and general hardware, as well as being the largest and most modern store of its kind in the Interior of B.C.

though born in New Brunswick, he felt the call of the west after serving in the R.C.A.F. in Great War. For several years he owned and operated hardware stores in Westlock and Clyde, Alberta.

In 1930 he sold out his business on the prairies and moved to the Okanagan, where in the same year, he bought out the pioneer Leckie Hardware business in Kelowna.

From this, he first expanded in 1931 to Vernon. This at a time when many firms were seriously considering retrenchment, rather than growth. His past and present faith in the Okanagan has more than proved itself.

In 1941 he instituted the branch in Penticton, the same year in which he first became a member of the B.C. Legislature for the South Okanagan. He was re-elected in 1945 as a coalition member, and several weeks ago, was nominated to contest the Yale by-election under the Progressive Conservative colors. Mr. Bennett has taken an active part in community affairs in the three Okanagan Valley towns, while his wife shares his civic interests in many organizations.

ENTIRE STORE SHOP WINDOW AT BENNETT'S

Objective Achieved Through Lighting and Partly Due to Layout of Store

The whole store a shop window. That has been the objective of Bennett's Hardware in the remodeling of their premises on Bernard Avenue. It has been achieved partly through lighting and partly through the lay-out. Realizing the need for sufficient lighting in a store whose area takes in 2,500 square feet of floor space spread from the main street to the lane at the rear, Bennett's have installed fluorescent lighting throughout the store. In addition to this, the architectural design is in the modern manner, which makes great use of glass.

The entire store front is glass inset in chromium and interspersed where structure requires it, with pillars faced with cream blended with peachviolet. Entry is gained through a plate glass panel door, with smart handles of chromium. Once inside, the store presents a long vista of tables, loaded with attractive goods, featuring home appliances, artistically arranged and set off well under the flow of fluorescent lighting. The main floor is unobstructed save for central columns which have been converted into display pyramids. Shelves are stacked with electric toasters, hot plates, radios, and other small goods that contribute so much to a home, such as book ends, boudoir lamps, ash trays, pictures and mirrors.

Many Lamps. Also on display are a variety of floor and standing lamps, table lamps, smokers' sets, electric stoves, refrigerators and washing machines. Walls of the main floor have a large assortment of mirrors, some in artistically wrought gilt frames, others plain or etched with a variety of designs.

In another section of the store, one finds a variety of small wares. Here is a grand display of tools, garden equipment and kitchen utensils. Here also are to be found many of those things for which the housewife has pined during the past six or seven years, electric toasters, cake mixers or fruit juice squeezers, sandwich toasters, aluminum pots and pans, flame and bake-resistant ovenware and casseroles and even one item that has certainly been a rarity for many years—a waffle iron.

STORE CARRIES LARGE STOCK OF ENAMELS

Specializing in everything for the home, the Bennett Hardware carries a large stock of paints and enamels.

Their usual practice of buying in quantity where they believe the quality to be good, has resulted in Bennett's importing within the last few months, carload after carload of special goods which they now have on hand for the grand official opening of their remodelled store on Bernard Avenue.

LIBERAL CONVENTION

From Page 1, Column 5 point in life where it would be unwise for me to try to carry out the growing activities which your future president will be obliged to perform in what I hope will be the most active and progressive years
this British Columbia Liberal Association has ever experienced both federally and provincially," he declared.

Following is the text of Dr. Knox's address:

"I wish to thank you one and all for your attendance at this convention. It augurs well for Liberalism in British Columbia when such a full list of delegates attend. It shows a vital interest in the welfare of her people and their future.
"We have a very full slate with many very important matters to decide.

Regret Retirement
"I know that you all regret most deeply the coming retirement of our leader and premier, but to all there must come a time when it is wise life, and I feel sure the Honorable John Hart regrets the necessity of his retirement even more than we do.

"We have, therefore, to choose a new leader, and I would plead that in doing so you keep in mind the best interests of the people of British Columbia, who for over the past thirty years have, with the exception of one period of a little over four years, trusted their affairs in the hands and direction of a Liberal leader.

"Do not make the mistake that another party convention made in trying to dictate who is to be the premier. This is purely the prerogative of the retiring premier, and the acceptance of the premier-designate is the prerogative of the members of the Legislature who belong to the Coalition. Therefore, trust your elected members and your leader to do the correct thing. It is a grave responsibility not only on the leader chosen but also on you who do the choosing.

"If the new leader you choose is a good leader, a true and trusted liberal, a square-dealer, then Liberalism will grow in this province, and the people will trust him. If he is not that type then he will not be premier long, and Liberalism will get a severe blow.

"At the executive committee meeting in October it was felt that important matters of the Association require a province-wide discussion more frequently than it is possible for the executive committee to meet. For some, the distances of travel are great as are securing accommodation. There is the matter of expense—therefore a resolution was passed that a sub-committee of the general executive be formed and termed an advisory council, composed of: 1. The elected officers of the B.C. Liberal Association; 2. The Senior Liberal federal member; 3. The B.C. federal treasurer; 4. One member chosen from each of the 18 federal ridings.

"This committee would meet twice a year to discuss important matters of the association and to bring in resolutions to the general executive meeting when it was felt necessary for such a meeting to be called.

"It is hoped that this convention will see fit to add this executive sub-committee as a clause in our constitution.

Short Notice

"I might say that as the time was short and it was an innovation, I took it upon myself to ask the senior federal member, Mr. Tom Reid to act as chairman and to convene this advisory council, and I sent word to the president of each federal Liberal association to convene the president and secretary of each provincial riding in his federal riding, and they to choose the person they deemed best in the whole federal riding to act on the advisory council.

"It seemed to me that, thus, the person chosen would be the most representative of that federal riding. It is for you to say if this method is to be the constitutional one.

"I asked them to have the names sent in to headquarters not later than November 10, and from there they were forwarded at once to Mr.
Reid, who convened on November 10 and again on this past Sunday, and I understand, put in two long days and evenings. I feel sure this is a progressive step in the right direction.

"There are also resolutions for an official recognition of properly organized women's and young Liberal associations. Are we doing all we can for the education and information of our young men and women?
I think not—and yet the future of this province depends on them. Let us concentrate our efforts on educating them and their mothers in the history of the legislation of Canada and British Columbia and to note that the main social advances of our people have been under Liberal leadership and legislation. Get their opinions on how to deal with present and future phases of our political life, and above all, remind them that the history of the past ten years has most pointedly shown that when a people loose their political liberty they soon loose all other liberties.

"I do not believe in dividing one's forces unnecessarily, but our women have done yeoman-service for Liberalism, and they can have their own association, with an official recognition by the provincial association, but if it is found desirable, we should encourage them to form associations of their own, and let us, as the provincial body, work out a way to give them official recognition and welcome.

Encourage Young People

"There are times when the young people can interest each other, and discuss more freely the politics and world events amongst themselves with no elders present. I feel we have overlooked this very important field in the past, to our sorrow and loss. I feel that many of them should also belong to the provincial association, but if it is found desirable, we should encourage them to form associations of their own, and let us, as the provincial body, work out a way to give them official recognition and welcome.

"I have only touched on these three resolutions because I feel that they are vital to the life and growth of our provincial association, and for the prosperity of Liberalism in British Columbia.

"Just here I wish to congratulate Mrs. Nancy Hodges, M.L.A., of Victoria, on the honor extended to her last month at the Federal Women's National Liberal Convention at Ottawa, where she was chosen president of the National Women's Liberal Association. We are proud of her, wish her the greatest success in her high office, and feel sure she will be a credit to her province.

President 11 Years

"I have been your president for over eleven years. This is the third convention at which I have had the honor to preside. It has been both an honor and a pleasure to serve you, and I want to thank you one and all for your tolerance, your understanding, and your kindness to me on all occasions. If I have offended any, I can assure you it has not been intentional.

"If at any time I have seemed to rush matters, it has not been for the purpose of preventing the expression of opinion, but with the thought of expediting what at times seemed likely to lead into byways of undetermined length.

"In mentioning a few who have borne the brunt of the executive work I do not wish to detract one iota from the work of all of you during my tenure of office but first I wish to mention Miss Howe who has, during all that time taken the brunt of the mechanical part of organizing. She was first secretary to Major Moodie, then to Mr.
Charles Reid, and in the latter years has been chief factotum in the headquarters in Victoria.

"Second, I want to mention Mr.
A. H. Cox who has been responsible for the organization of Vancouver Island during that time and who has been official treasurer of the provincial association since 1938. His efficiency is shown by the fact that out of ten members on the Island all are Liberals with the exception of two, one of whom is the leader of the Conservative Party in British Columbia, and the other is a straight Coalitionist. No organization in any other part of the province is in as good a shape as that of Vancouver Island.

Great Help

"These two, Miss Howe and Mr.
Cox, have served during my entire tenure of office, and I want to thank them for their efficiency and allegiance.

"I would like to mention also Mr.
Charles Reid who was very popular in the interior of B.C. and who did good organization work prior to and during the regime of the Hon. Duff Pattullo.

"Aubrey Peck, too, I wish to mention. He occupied the position of organizer for Greater Vancouver and secretary in the Vancouver Liberal headquarters office. For a young man, his wisdom and political sagacity are to be commended.
When the war came he enlisted and came home wounded. On demobiliza-tion he decided to choose an occupation with more security than offered in a political office.

"And lastly, I wish to mention the excellent services we, as an executive, have received from Harry Dennison, who was appointed to occupy the office vacated by Mr. Reid.
Again we have a young man showing aptitude, tact, and industry in a very difficult office. I am very sorry to report that his health at the present is severely affected and he has been ordered by his doctor to absent himself from the office for some time.

"There are many more I could mention, who during my tenure of office, have had to accomplish a volume of work and it has always been done willingly and efficiently.
I have reached that point in life where it would be unwise for me to try to carry out the growing activities which your future president will be obliged to perform in what I hope will be the most active and progressive years. This British Columbia Liberal Association has ever experienced both federally and provincially.

"The mandate given to the Coalition government in the election of 1945 is still in force, and I have no doubt that the subject will be discussed at this convention. It is for you to say if the will of the people is to be carried out during the time left to the present government, which was elected by the people.

Capable Man

"In choosing your president do so with the remembrance that he must be broadminded and capable of seeing arguments on both sides. He must, while president, act more as a judge and chairman, never taking sides in any argument or discussion, and using his opinion on any subject only if the vote is a tie.
Otherwise, he will offend the minority and cause discord, and may even do them an injustice. This is the duty to guard the best interests of Liberalism and of the welfare of the B.C. Liberal Association.

"At all times he must speak out boldly against any subversive movement that might endanger its welfare, and must lead and encourage any movements tending toward progressive and increased strength in our party for the good of our people.

He must know the constitution and uphold it, and if possible, visit all the district associations during his tenure, especially the 18 federal associations. Thus he will get in closer touch with his executive officers and their problems. May I say here that not only should the president visit the district associations, but is should be the duty of the members of parliament, and of the cabinet, and of the leader to do so,
and they should make sure that the women and young people are invited and encouraged to hear them speak.

"Though I have not been able to fulfill all these requirements, yet from my length of service I have become fully aware of them. So, in this, my swan song as your president, may I again thank you for the trust you have placed in me making me your president for such a long term of years. I appreciate greatly the honor. I will always remember with pleasure and pride that I was able to take some little part in the political life of this wonderful province of ours.

"I wish the association ever-increasing strength, prosperity, and wisdom in the years to come."

"Where Cash Beats Credit"

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

REASON FOR PRICE RISE

Kelowna, B.C., Dec. 9.
Editor, Kelowna Courier:
After reading the letter this week in the Courier written by a very worthy citizen (Mr. O. L. Jones) about the rising cost of living; it appears to me Mr. Jones is following the lead of our parliamentary leaders, Mr. Bracken, Mr. Coldwell and Mr. Low, who often complain about the rising cost of foodstuffs. These gentlemen forget they themselves started the landslide of rising costs when they voted themselves a $2,000 more wages for attending the parliamentary sittings, and voting Yes or by raising their hands.

Let us examine the cost of living—No. 1 flour today is $5.40 and after the last war it was $8 and $9. Sugar today is $10 and after the last war it was $25, per 100. Spuds today are about $3.00 and after the last war $8 per 100. Cocoa today can be bought for 30¢ per pound cheaper than ever before, matches, salt have remained stationary over a period of years, rice, tea and coffee have jumped in price because these items are imported and our thrifty government collects a heavy duty, and partly because the countries producing these goods are paying larger wages to workers.

When Mr. Gordon was the head of the prices board, he did a good job, although the retailer was given more work to do, and I think the public were well served and more satisfied.

Mr. Editor, why is the milkman, grocer, butcher rebuked in the news and fined in the court, for making another cent or two on a small sale when there are so many glaring increases in the sale of property and houses. We all know of houses worth two or three thousand dollars have found purchasers willing to pay three times the original price.

If the government intended to stop the rising costs they could have easily passed a law setting the price of property at the value set by the tax collector—and perhaps allowed the property owner to raise the stat-

NEW BENNETT HARDWARE STORE

Rated as the most up-to-date hardware store in the Interior of British Columbia, Bennett Hardware officially opened its new quarters this week. The above picture shows the interior of the store, which has been extended to the lane. There is over 5,000 square feet of floor space, while the walls and ceiling have been finished in cream. Fluorescent lighting also helps to brighten up the store.

Vernon Takes Opening Game Of Hockey Loop Beating Kelowna 10-8

A protest has been lodged with the league president, Art Gagne, Kamloops, on the basis that officials handling the game did not award a penalty shot to Eddie Witt when Bill Neilson was penalized late in the final period, allegedly for holding and preventing Witt from getting a shot on goal. If the protest is upheld, the game will have to be re-played, a local spokesman said.

VERNON—Kelowna Aces' hopes of taking the opening game of the senior B Mainline Hockey League at the Vernon Civic Arena Tuesday night were shattered by a surprising strong and well-knit Vernon sextet who jumped into an early 4-0 lead and held on to win 10-8.

But not all the glory goes to the hometowners. High point-getters were both on the Ace line-up—Jimmy McIndoe and Bud Gourlie—while on the defensive, goalkeeper Jack Biechel was in a class by himself.

McIndoe, on skates for the first time this year, joined the ranks of a fairly easy time, particularly in the elite, snaring five goals, a feat that is seldom seen in any league. Aces had been after Jimmy for several days and it was not until three hours before game time that they were sure McIndoe would be there. With Lethbridge Maple Leafs for four years, and another three after that with Flin Flon, Man., McIndoe proved a lower of strength to the sometimes disorganized Kelowna squad.

Coach Gourlie also bid fair to be a threat for any scoring honors, driving in two goals and assisting on three others. Almost a 60-minute man, Gourlie's play was effective and inspiring. But the little man who saved the Kelowna Aces from a severe drubbing was Biechel in the nets. A little jittery in the first few minutes, Jack settled down to give the 1,200 fans one of the greatest exhibitions of netminding seen in many a day.

Much of the play was held in the Kelowna zone and Biechel had to be good. At one spot in the hectic second period, he kicked out as many as six pucks in one minute. All told, Vernon snipers peppered him with 62 shots.

Outshot 18-4 in the first stanza, the visitors were behind 4-1 at the bell. Goals by McIndoe, Newton and Gourlie tied it up at 4-4 at the 6:15 mark of the second, but Fred Smith put Vernon back in front a few seconds later.

Aces managed to even it up again at the end of the middle frame, going into the third period, 6-6. Vernon picked up four goals, including three by Stan Berry, in the last 20 minutes, while the Aces were held to a pair.

Kodiaks Lose Too
Kelowna Kodiaks may have augured the senior outcome, losing a heart-breaker to the Vernon juveniles, 3-2, in a close, thrilling preliminary. After a scoreless first period, Fisher, on a pass from Wyatt put Vernon in the lead midway through the second.

Johnny Ego got that one back for the Kodiaks, assisted by Oishi. Kodiaks went out in front in the third chapter when Doug Anderson blazed a shot past the Vernon goalie, Stan Mills and Henschke combined to tie up the score for the hometown boys and add the third goal that won the game.

Next action for the Aces and Kodiaks is as yet undecided. No league has been formed for the juveniles but one is understood to be on its way.

PUCK PATTERN — While not exactly pleased with the results, GOURLIE was not completely disappointed. Said he: "We need some more practice—that's obvious. We'll even it up next time." ... GOURLIE, McINDOE and WITT carried the brunt for the Aces, but for fight and spunk, the GARRAW boys, Bill and George were hard to beat.

Lines were shuffled all night long, but the most effective seemed to be Newton (1), Gourlie (6) and McIndoe (7). WITT is now sporting a black eye, a memento of his feud with NEILSON.

Peter Vajda, Canada's ace ski instructor, will be giving instructions to Kelowna skiers at the Kelowna Ski Bowl on Monday and Tuesday, December 15 and 16, the Kelowna Ski Club has announced.

At the present moment, Vajda is conducting a course for ski instructors on Silver Star Mountain, Vernon. The course, sponsored by the Okanagan Ski Zone, started on Monday and will continue until Saturday.

Vajda, who is instructor at the University of B.C., may confirm the dates of the proposed inter-collegiate meet when he arrives here during the week-end. Four colleges—U.B.C., and three American—are expected to take part in the meet.

DEATH AND DAMAGE on the Highway have made necessary the new "Safety-Responsibility" law.

"In this very year, to the end of September, there were 127 people killed in motor accidents. There were 2,940 people injured. There were 8,135 motor accidents of all kinds.

"To that date, the record shows one person killed in this Province every other day."

Extract from a radio address delivered on November 27th, 1947, by the Honourable Gordon S. Wismer, K.C., Attorney-General of the Province of British Columbia.

The record of traffic accidents has become so serious drastic measures are necessary. To curb this mounting toll, your Government has passed legislation providing heavy penalties for all who fail to accept their full driving responsibilities.

There is nothing experimental about the new British Columbia "Safety-Responsibility" law. Similar legislation in Manitoba and in the States of New Hampshire and New York has succeeded in gaining two objectives. First—it protects responsible motorists and pedestrians against irresponsible drivers. Second—it establishes in the mind of every motorist a greater awareness of his responsibilities and makes him do something about it. This it achieves by providing offenders with such severe penalties as license cancellation and vehicle confiscation.

Prevention is the keynote of the new legislation. Compulsory insurance laws, suggested as an alternative, are not preventive. They provide compensation only after the damage is done. B.C.'s new law assures all who walk or drive the roads a greater degree of safety.

The "Safety-Responsibility" law becomes effective on March 1st. A summary of the provisions will be published in the next statement of this series. You are asked to study the details of this legislation. Complete co-operation by everyone is essential to make the Act work.

Local Cagers Will Meet Penticton on Saturday

Hoop fans, who so far have not exactly been getting along on a starvation diet of city and inter-city hoop activity at the Scout Hall, are being treated this week for their annual Christmas feast.

On the bill this Saturday, at the Scout Hall, is slated the most appealing menu yet to be put before the public this year. It's a senior B and an intermediate A get-together that should draw the best crowd so far this season.

Landing off at 8 p.m. is the game that every hoop follower has been waiting for—the first meeting between the Kelowna Orioles and the Penticton Inter A squad. Both teams have an imposing record.

The main bill of fare at 9.15 brings together the Kelowna Bears and the Penticton seniors in a rubber match. Bears won the year's opener here but Penticton got it back a few days later at Penticton.

Both the Orioles and the Bears, if victorious, will have a chance to make it two-straight next Monday when a return match is played in Penticton.

Normal School Coming

A tasty morsel on the pre-Christmas card will be the Vancouver Normal School-Kelowna Bears meet at the Scout Hall on December 20, a week from Saturday. A preliminary game is also being arranged.

Then to top off the banquet will be the annual All-Kelowna Day, on Boxing Day, when Kelowna hoopers playing at the coast are here for the holidays and take on the Kelowna Bears.

And to start things off right, the Kelowna Basketball Association has under consideration a game for New Year's Day.

GAME MATTERS ARE DISCUSSED AT PEACHLAND

Delegates Are Appointed to Attend Fish, Game Meeting at Penticton

PEACHLAND—A meeting of the Peachland branch of the Fish, Game and Forest Protective Association was held in the Legion Hall last week. H. K. Keating, president, explained it was hoped to have quarterly meetings, but it has been impossible during the busy season. The meeting had been called to appoint delegates to attend a meeting of the Penticton Fish and Game Club, he said.

A list of questions had been sent out to members for an expression of opinion, so the delegates would know the feeling of the club when resolutions are presented to the convention of the Interior Association.

Fish rearing, coarse fish and fish hatcheries were discussed. Question as to whether lakes could be set aside for fly fishing was asked, but it was felt this could not be enforced.

Pheasants, two cocks, and ten hens, had been put in Peachland, but they are very scarce, and it was felt there should be more so that they could be tagged. Cats and dogs feed on young pheasants and dogs are a menace it was pointed out. Willow grouse are on the increase, and the season should be kept closed, members agreed.

It was felt that Does are wounded and left on the ground, as many of them could be seen lying around. Many American hunters are coming in and pay the guides heavily, making it impossible for Canadians to hire them. It was brought out that the Game Commission is the only body that issues the license for guides. It was felt guiding needs re-vamping. The last day of the season the game warden was trying to be in six places at once, and it was felt that there should be a deputy game warden here.

The executive, H. K. Keating, D. A. K. Fuls and S. A. Smalls, were chosen as delegates to attend the meeting in Penticton. Three members of the Kelowna Club attended the meeting, A. Blackie, H. Chichester and F. Lucas, and they supplied some interesting information.

Mr. Chichester showed some beautiful colored film which he had taken, one of the Okanagan and one of a trip through the mountains to Alberta, with some striking views of mountain sheep, deer and Canada geese. A film showing the Wabie Fly at work on the cow, and the damage it did to the animal and the hide, was also shown.

MOOSE LODGE BEATEN 29-22 BY PIONEERS

Moose Juniors Overpower School Boys 20-18 While the City Gals Win 29-16

Legion Pioneers settled their score with the Moose Lodge intermediate B boys at Scout Hall Saturday night, taking a thrilling hoop game, 29-22. This was the second meeting of these two squads, with the Moose winning the first one several weeks ago.

Vic Welder and Ron Holland combined to tame the Moose, getting eight and seven points, respectively. Jack Botham with four baskets and a foul scored, tried to hold up the Moose end. The losers had lots of opportunities to score on several Pioneer fouls, but their shooting was not equal to the chances.

Scores of fans were keyed up to the exciting pitch of the main inter B event by the close junior boys' tussle which ended 20-18 in favor of the Moose juniors over the school boys. Big guns for the winners were Hill (9) and Simpson (6). Ross Lander was tops for the students with five.

In a fast preliminary the City Girls had little trouble turning back Kelowna High School Inter B girls 29-16. But Flo McGregor on the losing side was top scorer for the night getting 12 points, while M. Murdock paced the winners with 10.

OPEN SCHOOL FOR REFEREES AT VERNON

VERNON—A school for hockey referees was started here this week, under the direction of Claude Smail. The instructor spent several years refereeing on the prairies.

Ken MacKay, president of the local hockey body, said there would be no Kelowna men attending the school. He said the Aces would try to get Smail to act as referee when the Vernon team was idle. Vic Cowley has consented to act as a Kelowna linesman, MacKay said.

ANNUAL GAME DINNER SET FOR FEB. 4

Kelowna and District Rod and Gun Club Makes Plans for Banquet

RESOLUTIONS

Many Suggestions for Game Preservation Will be Presented at Annual Meeting

Annual game dinner of the Kelowna and District Rod and Gun Club has been tentatively set for February 4. It was decided at a recent executive meeting. Dinner will be held at St. Joseph's Hall, Sutherland Ave., and will be catered to by the Catholic Women's League.

A committee has been formed to take care of preparations for this annual event that usually draws capacity crowds. Arrangements for a guest speaker have not been completed, but the committee is hopeful of getting Dr. Ian McTaggart-Cowan again. He spoke here at the dinner in 1946.

A conservation education program is expected to be started shortly by the club. Plans are being made for club members to give talks and show pictures at schools in the district to make the pupils conscious of conserving game.

Shorter Moose Season

Some of the suggestions agreed by the executive to be put before the annual meeting, due sometime in January, are: a cut in the moose season; a limit on the number of non-resident hunters allowed in B. C.; restriction of hunting areas for non-resident hunters; restrictions on the licensing of guides; the return of the box car type of tags for deer; use of tags by non-resident hunters.

At a previous meeting, the executive was told fish life in Postill Lake had received little damage from the lake being drained for dam repairs. Secretary Jim Treadgold was instructed to write Sid Johns thanking him for his work in helping to have the fish by bulldozing a temporary dam.

Any donations of game meat or fish will be gratefully received by the rod and gun club executive. The club now has a locker at Kelowna Frozen Food Lockers for use of the annual dinner meats and fishes.

30 MINUTES FROM CLIPPER

TO BAG

Since the dawn of agriculture, young, fast-growing grasses have been recognized as nature's finest food for livestock. How to carry these benefits into Winter was for many years the aim of feeding research. Today modern dehydration provides the answer.

Unique in Canadian industry is Buckerfield's Vita-Gras Farm, occupying 2500 acres in the Sumas Lake region. For over 200 days in the year, freshly cut young grass is fed into modern dehydration units where rapid controlled heat removes one item only—its water content. Vitamins, minerals, and important carotene are retained almost entirely. The time involved? Half an hour from clipper to bag.

All Buckerfield's feeds contain Vita-Gras. By preserving the vital new-growth factors of spring greens for all-year feeding, Vita-Gras is an important contribution to Canadian agriculture.

HOLD VERNON ICE FROLIC ON TWO DAYS

1947 Annual Rotary Club Carnival Will Be Held December 27 and 29

VERNON—Dates of the 1947 annual Vernon Rotary Club's Ice Frolic have been set for Saturday, December 27, and Monday, December 29. Speeding skating stars of Canada and the U.S.A. will perform under lights of the Vernon Civic Arena.

Mrs. J. B. Fraser, of Vancouver, will arrive in Vernon two weeks prior to the show to train members of the Vernon Skating Club for ballet numbers. She will be accompanied by 11 members of the Vancouver Skating Club who, augmented by local talent, will put on three large spectacles which are part of the program of the Vancouver Rotary Ice Carnival.

Special music, lighting and costumes are being brought to Vernon for these large colorful acts.

Noted Stars

Some of the noted Vancouver stars are coming to Vernon with Mrs. Fraser. They are Bill Louis, Jean Roth, Ronnie Vinson and Bernice McKay. Ted Deoley, the young comic skater who made such a wonderful hit last year, will also be with the coast artists.

Vernon Rotarians have a real treat up their sleeve in the person of two head liners. These are Suzanne Morrow and Wallace Diestelmeyer. Miss Morrow was Junior Pair Champion of Canada in 1945, Junior Ladies' Champion, 1946, and Senior Pair Champion and North American Pair Champion in 1947. Mr. Diestelmeyer was Canadian Junior Pair Champion and Junior Men's Champion of Canada in 1946, Senior Canadian Champion in 1946 and 1947, and North American Champion in 1947.

After the finish of the Vernon Carnival these two stars will leave for the East by plane from Calgary, whence they will travel to Switzerland to compete in the Olympic games. Two of their Olympic numbers to be skated in Switzerland, a pair and an aerobic duet, will be performed on Vernon ice.

Mayfair Lunch Counter Opens

The above picture shows the city's first all-night restaurant which officially opened for business this week. Operated by John Weygart, the Mayfair Lunch Counter adjoins the Mayfair Hotel, at the corner of Abbott Street and Bernard Avenue. Modern in every detail, patrons have a beautiful view overlooking Lake Okanagan.

Kelowna's First All-Night Dining Spot is Now Open

Kelowna late snackers got an owl eating place with the opening recently of the Mayfair Lunch Counter. The new dining spot adjoins the Mayfair Apartments at the Bernard Ave.-Abbott Street corner.

Proprietor John Weygart added a 60 feet long and 10 feet wide cement structure to his apartment building to give the city its only all-night, 24-hour service restaurant. In clean spacious surroundings, under ample fluorescent lighting, a 48 foot counter takes up most of the building which looks out on Lake Okanagan and the scenic Aquatic.

A lunch booth and two rest rooms are also provided. The owner, who came to the district from Saskatchewan in 1935, has been living and farming in the Bend District until moving to Kelowna this year. His present home is on Burne Ave.

PIONEER STEEL FIRM PROUD OF PRODUCTS

General Steel Wares Have Been Producing Household Goods for 100 Years

Proud of their record, which stretches back to encompass 100 years of business in Canada, is General Steel Wares from whom Bennett Hardware obtains its stoves, refrigerators and cooking utensils. General Steel Wares have been producing such products for the Canadian home for 100 years and are this year celebrating the centennial of the establishment of their first factory in Canada.

Such a long record surpassed by few business houses in Canada, create, they feel, the confidence of the public in the goods they produce.

Their main products are stoves, heating equipment, electric refrigerators and General Steel Wares cooking utensils, besides a great many other items.

Their factories are located at Toronto, London, Montreal and Vancouver.

The Vancouver factory is situated at Marpole, and produces many lines of goods at present in popular demand, chiefly sheet metal ware.

The Vancouver organization is well equipped to meet the needs of the many General Steel Wares dealers throughout the province.

Bennett's have handled their products for many years and their customers are always satisfied.

Other products handled by the Bennett Hardware store, to mention a few are: Moffat ranges, Benjamin-More paints, Rock Gas ranges, Sidney roofing products, Coolers, Kool-Aids, Spencer Ranges, Crosley radios, Canadian Westinghouse, electric and locomotive washing machines, C.C.M. sporting goods, and Spaulding sporting goods.

Other models shown by Bennett's have ivory pottery bases ornamented with gilt, or a modest floral design, while for those who prefer something more unusual, or desire to complete a particular color scheme or motif there are several pairs of vanity lamps with brightly colored birds forming the base.

Other table lamps are shown with wrought-metal bases which have the advantage of being solid and untippable—a great advantage in a home where there are lively children.

A smart new style in lamp bases employs little squares of crystal or plastic, interspersed with gold or black and arranged in a pyramid design. This style is seen in both table and boudoir lamps.

Crystal, of course, always been a popular material for vanity or bedside table lamps, and in this, or in its modern equivalent, clear, gleaming plastic, it makes a pretty and useful ornament.

MODERN TREND IN LIGHTING AT BENNETT'S

New Principle in Home Lighting Attractively Carried Out in Store

Why the upward cast to lights such as standing lamps now on display at the Bennett Hardware store? Because students of lighting have revealed an indirect light is easier on the eyes than a direct glow.

This new principle in home lighting is attractively carried out in some of the new standing lamp models. One model, in particular, has an amber glass shade arranged in such a way that the light is thrown upward against the ceiling, where it will be reflected down in soft, diffused glow. Base of the lamp is a handsome column of wrought metal, finished in antique gilt.

Also shown at Bennett's is the ever-popular trillights, with handsome shades, which may be purchased separately in many cases.

Following the modern trend which is to forsake the parchment, gaudy lamp shades of pre-war days, shades now come in ivory, or at the most a very pale pastel.

Among their large stock of handsome models, the base of which gives the impression of being an alabaster vase, sometimes discreetly adorned with gilt, or chastely ornamented with a flower design.

The shades are ivory silk or parchment, or sometimes the new plastic in a pleated effect. Cord or fringe forms a popular trimming on many models.

Other table lamps are shown with wrought-metal bases which have the advantage of being solid and untippable—a great advantage in a home where there are lively children.

A smart new style in lamp bases employs little squares of crystal or plastic, interspersed with gold or black and arranged in a pyramid design. This style is seen in both table and boudoir lamps.

Crystal, of course, always been a popular material for vanity or bedside table lamps, and in this, or in its modern equivalent, clear, gleaming plastic, it makes a pretty and useful ornament.

Other models shown by Bennett's have ivory pottery bases ornamented with gilt, or a modest floral design, while for those who prefer something more unusual, or desire to complete a particular color scheme or motif there are several pairs of vanity lamps with brightly colored birds forming the base.

SOUTH OKANAGAN VALLEY NEWS ROUNDUP

THE City of Kelowna still leads the entire Okanagan Valley in the value of construction permits issued during the first 11 months of the year. The Orchard City's total now stands at $1,519,831, while Penticton is running a close second with $1,392,018, and Vernon in third place with $1,082,000. Value of Kelowna's permits during November was $72,865; Vernon's $66,259, while the monthly figures for Penticton are not available. Penticton is expected to soar to the top when a building permit for construction of 50 additional wartime houses is issued sometime this month. This will amount to approximately $240,000.

PENTICTON ELECTRICAL WORKERS received some healthy figures on pay cheques last week as the unanimous award of the board of arbitrators in the wage dispute between the municipality and its electrical workers was implemented in the form of cold, hard cash. The board, which sat a few weeks ago to hear the demands of the men, all members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, for a basic wage rate of $12.25 per hour, forwarded its findings to the council last week. The award was made retroactive to August, 1947, with the added stipulation that a further six and one quarter cents an hour across the board be paid to the men on April 1, 1948.

Bright Line of Kitchen Equipment On Display at Bennett Hardware

Many Hard-to-Get Articles Are Now Obtainable for First Time in Years

The woman who takes special pride in her kitchen and whose chief delight is the preparation of fine meals will find many aids for her pet hobby in the Bennett Hardware Kitchen department. If she doesn't happen to be the proud owner of an electric cake-mixer or fruit juicer, and if she's almost forgotten what such equipment looks like, she can refresh her memory by a glimpse at latest models now on display at Bennett's. These are just one or two of the many scarce items Bennett's have managed to gather up for their store's official opening. But they also have many other products still on the "hard to get" list, such as electrical equipment of all kinds, including toasters in new designs, sandwich-makers, iron and waffle irons.

A desirable piece of equipment for the one who must do her cooking in a crowded space is the range electric, this provides a two electric hotplates and a tiny oven or grill, the whole affording ample heating facilities for the preparation of a full course meal, including coffee. These would also be nice for the hostess who likes to do some of her cooking at the table and pop things on to the guests' plates piping hot.

For the working housewife or casual guest, or even the bachelor housekeeper who hasn't time to lay fires, Bennett's have electric fireplaces. These are also nice for the home-maker who appreciates an extra bit of heat without the fuss or bother of carting out ashes. If you belong to the Old School that simply must have its fire of crackling logs or glowing coals, Bennett's have fire irons, screens and a handsome hammered brass wood or coal box.

SIX TRIPS DAILY FOR GREYHOUND

Greyhound Western Canadian Limited, on December 8, brought into effect a 20 per cent increase in service.

There are now six daily round trips between Vernon and Penticton. Previously the company operated five daily return trips through Kelowna.

The new schedule also provides for four round trips daily between Penticton and Osoyoos. Direct connections are still being made at Vernon for Kamloops and Revelstoke.

Posties To Rest Christmas Day; Peak of Mail to Come Next Week

Extra Men Taken On by Local Post Office to Handle Heavy
Mail

Christmas Day will be the same for the local postman as it is for virtually everyone else—a holiday. And chances are after the week's rush just prior to December 25, he'll need the rest.

There will be no mail delivery on Christmas Day and the local post office will be closed up tight. But regular hours will prevail at the post office on December 26 and the mailmen will be tramping around their routes on Boxing Day.

Local postal officials are stressing the necessity of correct addresses on all mail to ensure delivery. From now until after Christmas post office workers are going to be deluged with cards, letters and parcels, outgoing and incoming.

To cope with the situation, much extra help will be on hand. But they'll find it a little difficult getting "on to the ropes." Correct addresses and proper wrapping of parcels will save time and handling and make for speedy delivery.

Need Correct Address

There will probably be 350,000 letters and cards passing through the local office between now and

Christmas, with the rush peak between December 17 and 21. Thousands of these will end up in the dead letter office unless they have the proper name, number and street name.

"Hundreds of people in Kelowna will not receive cards and the senders will be disappointed," a departmental spokesman declared. "But it will be the fault of the senders, whether they live here or outside the city, for not putting the correct and full address on the envelopes."

Parcels wrapped up in frail tissue paper are taboo. Each parcel should be wrapped up in stout paper with strong cord or other means for keeping the parcel together in one piece. It is not the department's responsibility to re-wrap parcels.

And just to make sure all mail reaches the destination on time here are the deadline mailing dates:

Mailing Dates
United States before Dec. 10
Maritime Provinces, before Dec. 13
Ontario, Quebec before Dec. 15
Manitoba before Dec. 16
Sask., Alta. before Dec. 17
British Columbia before Dec. 18
Deadline for local delivery is December 19. If posted later than the dates specified, delivery by Christmas is not guaranteed by the department.

GIRL GUIDES PASS TESTS FOR BADGES

New recruit Patricia Brew was welcomed. Badge awards went to Joan Mandel, laundress; Sydney Kelley, second class. Nancy Ellis completed all examinations for second class badge.

First aid examinations, second class, passed by Jean Appleton, Betty Anne Krauser, Nancy Ellis, Sandra Lipsett, Lita McColl, Mary Schmitt, Catharine Archibald, Dorothy Barr, Frances Oatman, Sylvia Holton, Marlene Mandel, Donna Schraeder, Audrey James, Vera Foote.

During the week tests were passed by Donna Schraeder, nature; Alice dePuyfer, knots; Betty Anne Krauser and Vera Foote, useful article; Catharine Archibald, square lash; Sheila Moss, Lita McColl, Lois Underhill and Nancy Ellis, laundress.

Minstrel and artist exams were passed by Lois Underhill and Nancy Ellis; reader and writer by Sheila Moss.

I.O.D.E. CHAPTER IS THANKED FOR PARCELS

Members of the Mary Ellen Boyce Chapter, I.O.D.E., held their monthly meeting recently at the home of Mrs. Rupert Brown, when it was reported the home cooking sale, held jointly with the Dr. Knox Chapter, proved a success.

A letter of appreciation was read from an elderly lady in England to whom members send a monthly food parcel. Plans were made to provide another needy person with a monthly parcel, and Mrs. T. M. Standbridge was requested to look after the packing and mailing. Money from the post-war fund which is being closed, is being spent on wool to be knit into garments for European relief. A letter of deep appreciation was read from authorities who receive the garments saying they go to people in dire distress. Many children have to stay in bed through lack of clothing, the letter stated.

Calendars will be placed in rural schools. Mrs. A. H. Hooper reported returns from T.B. seals, as favorable.

Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. William Love, Ellis Street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gray left Monday for Vancouver to attend the Liberal convention.

NEWS OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

GROSS RETURNS FROM CHURCH BAZAAR $1,316

Large Number of People Turn Out for Annual Event Despite Bad Weather

COMPETITIONS

Stalls Well-Stocked With Beautiful Assortment of Goods

Gross receipts from the Anglican Church bazaar held last Wednesday afternoon, amounted to $1,316.55, it was revealed today. In spite of the unpleasant weather, a record number of people attended the annual event, and all stalls were well-stocked with useful and beautiful goods, chiefly the result of the diligence of the ladies of the parish.

Afternoon tea and evening refreshments were served by ladies representing all the various ladies' organizations in the church. The various church societies taking charge were: St. Michael's Parish Guild, the Women's Auxiliary, the Evening W.A., the Senior A.Y.P.A., Junior A.Y.P.A., the Anglican Men's Club, and the Sunday School. The home cooking stall was under the supervision of Mrs. H. W. Arbuckle, and fully lived up to its reputation. Mrs. D. S. Catchpole's stall of men's goods, was also a popular feature.

The results of the guessing competitions were as follows:
Weight of the lamb, given by Alister Cameron, was 56 lbs, and was guessed correctly by three people. On drawing, prizes came out—1st, E. Lewis, 2nd, Mrs. E. Apey, 3rd, Mrs. R. B. Deans.
The running time of the clock was 48 hours and was guessed correctly by Mrs. Giesinger.
Both Miss Ivy Egg and Mrs. Robertson guessed the number of candies in the bottle to be 200, the correct number being 199; Ivy Egg winning the doll's furniture and Mrs. Robertson the bottle of candies.

The chicken was won by Miss J. Sanborn and the kupie doll by Mrs. T. Treadgold.

The gross receipts were a little less than last year due to the fact that outside churches were not included in the bazaar. Parishes at Okanagan Mission, Rutland and East Kelowna are now operating independently.

SUCCESSFUL BAZAAR
Conveners of the recent Catholic Parish bazaar met at the home of Mrs. J. Mann, 806 Sutherland Ave. recently, where Mrs. Mann, chief convenor, was hostess for tea. A full report of the bazaar was given by Very Rev. W. B. McKenzie, rector of the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

LISTENING GROUP
When members meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. M. Gardner, Monday, the program will include the Latin American Symphonette No. 4 by Martin Gould, Iturbi with the Rochester Orchestra; Maggie Teyte's Art Songs; incidental music by William Walton to "Henry Fifth" with Laurence Olivier, and Debussy's "Images," the San Francisco Symphony under Monteux.

Miss Jean Travis left on Sunday for Vernon to see the one-man show by Evelyn Cools, pupil of Jessie Topham Brown. She will continue with handicraft instruction in Enderby, Salmon Arm and other places on the way to Kamloops.

Miss Travis conducted a course at Cadder House, Thursday, to Saturday afternoon, and evening classes covering scribble, action and contour drawing; drawing from a posed model and still life. Beside the host, Mr. Rufus Williams, students were Joan Adams, Di Davis, Mrs. S. M. Gore, Sydney Kelley, Lil Scantland, Miss D. S. Sutton, Mrs. Ira Swartz, Doreen Underhill and R. A. Widmeyer. They were encouraged to find themselves progressing at every lesson and having a heap of fun in the process.

SHIRLEY FORESTER
Work done by pupils of Jessie Topham Brown finds its way into many a private collection. Dr. Williams, a visitor to Kelowna this week, bought a Revelstoke scene by Shirley Forester, of Lumby, at Miss Brown's last annual exhibition of student work. Dr. Williams, connoisseur, who studied at Vancouver Art School, is bringing up his boys, aged seven, nine and eleven, to be patrons of the arts. In their new home, each boy has his own bedroom and Dr. Williams took them to the Vancouver Art Gallery to let each choose a silhouette by a Canadian artist. Jessie Faunt, Gallery docent, said the boys chose with great discrimination. The pictures are to be rotated among the bedrooms, every three months.

★ THE ARTS ★

The small company of handicraft workers in Kelowna has been augmented by the arrival from England recently of Dilys Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Elliott of 1425 Bertram Street. Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Fred Day, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Jackson are weavers, and Lorna Archer-Houlton and Alister Campbell, make pottery and in both these crafts Dilys Elliott has had wide experience.

For three years she studied at the Stourbridge School of Art in Worcestershire; left to take up nursing at the King Edward Seventh Hospital, Windsor, and after six months, returned to her first love, pottery-making, which she studied for another year. Her pottery instructor, J. E. Cottrell has since left for the Sudan to start an art school in South Africa under a government scheme.

In Clent, a village near Stourbridge, Dilys Elliott went into a small studio, making pottery with Rosemary Dugdale-Bradley and from her learned weaving. A little shop handled their wares, mostly tea and coffee sets, and tweeds. Miss Elliott also worked for Mr. Cottrell in his private studio at Stourbridge. He specialized in souvenir ware for holiday resorts. After two years at Clent, Miss Elliott, with her mother, came to Kelowna to join her father, and Kelowna's art group is happy to welcome her.

UNIQUE ARCHITECTURE
Miss Travis, with Mr. Widmeyer, was taken to see the home designed and blue-printed by Mrs. Jack McLennan. It is in one room, bedroom, bathroom and kitchen divided by sliding walls. It needs no furniture other than chest-of-drawers, chairs and bed, everything being built-in, including saucers, lids, bread boxes, dishwasher, breakfast trays that pull out of the kitchen counter, exhaust fan in the kitchen; record player, cosmetic and make-up cupboard, music bureau, sideboards, desks. Furnace room with laundry tubs is camouflaged into an attractive spare room. There are only three surfaces to dust, in the entire house. Lumber is cedar plywood. Handles and hinges are done by Ted Jones' coopercraft. The house, finished in March, is unique in the west.

HILDA McLENNAN, whose flashing fingers produced such wonderful violin playing at the Stagette concert Thursday night, has fingers equally deft for sewing. For the two sensational little numbers she wore two different dresses - one wore, one red and one white, they were not only designed, but made by herself.

KAY DUNAWAY came in for plenty of appreciative remarks at the Stagette concert by those who marvel at her versatility. Whether it is tricky cadenzas in "Lichens", the difficult "Warsaw Concerto", or a rumba, Kay is right in there, a musician to her fingertips and trooper to her toes. She is more than a good accompanist; she's there to give the artist the touch of reassurance to the artist, and to make a good performance even better.

Introduced as "an unassuming lad, who plays his horn all day and all night, and with good reason," Dave Pepper's music was sweet and true on Thursday night. Dave's dad is a retired Vernon High School principal. Dave learned to play the piano, then took up the trombone and has hardly put it down since. Though born in New Brunswick, Dave has lived mostly in B.C. He has been playing with Bert Niosi in Toronto, and you have to be good for that.

More Important Than Ever... This EATON Shopping Safeguard!

In these days of unsettled prices it is more reassuring than ever to know that every single thing you buy at EATON'S is backed by a permanent, unchanging Guarantee that safeguards every penny of every dollar you spend... a Guarantee of:

"GOODS SATISFACTORY OR MONEY REFUNDED—INCLUDING SHIPPING CHARGES"

This simple contract between a great organization and its customers has never been more significant than it is today... for it applies not only to performance and quality, but to price and value. It is a constant safeguard against unwarrantable price rises.

It has always been our policy to pass on the savings to our customers immediately the cost of any item is lowered by the removal of a tax or the lowering of a duty; similarly, when new excise taxes are imposed the increase is not reflected in our prices until we, ourselves, have had to pay the increased cost.

The meaning of the EATON Guarantee is simple. It admits of no exceptions. If, for any reason, you are not completely satisfied with the downtown dollars-and-cents value of anything you buy at EATON'S, you can send it back and your money will be refunded. That has been the basis of our way of business since 1869... our biggest, most important reason for saying:

"YOU CAN SHOP WITH CONFIDENCE AT EATON'S"

SHIRLEY FORESTER
Work done by pupils of Jessie Topham Brown finds its way into many a private collection. Dr. Williams, a visitor to Kelowna this week, bought a Revelstoke scene by Shirley Forester, of Lumby, at Miss Brown's last annual exhibition of student work. Dr. Williams, connoisseur, who studied at Vancouver Art School, is bringing up his boys, aged seven, nine and eleven, to be patrons of the arts. In their new home, each boy has his own bedroom and Dr. Williams took them to the Vancouver Art Gallery to let each choose a silhouette by a Canadian artist. Jessie Faunt, Gallery docent, said the boys chose with great discrimination. The pictures are to be rotated among the bedrooms, every three months.

NAVY LEAGUE

The Kelowna Branch of the Navy League of Canada, under whose auspices the Kelowna Sea Cadet Corps "H.M.C.S. Grenville" functions, normally finds at this time of year that funds are needed to carry on the operation of the corps for another year.

This year is no exception. Certain of the Sea Cadet uniforms need repair and renewal, and appreciating the pride the boys take in their uniforms,

M. Gregory was fined $5 in district police court December 5 where he was charged with failing to stop at a stop sign on the Vernon Road at the Holland intersection.

TIMELY RECIPES

HOT BREAD FOR SUPPER

Poets are impelled to write beautiful and soul stirring pictures or episodes of life, yet occasionally words are written of simple, everyday things. As Rupert Brooke referred to "The strong, crust of friendly bread" in his poem "The Great Lover," so the aroma of freshly baked bread with its tender, crispy crust may well call forth poetic thoughts today.

With the many exigencies of modern living, the task of bread baking has almost gone from the home.
The home economists of the Consumer Section, Dominion Department of Agriculture say that with up-to-date methods it is easy to provide hot rolls or special types of quick breads without taking too much time from the daily routine.

was pointed out that it would tend to disfigure the property which has become known all over Canada.

There would be insufficient space for parking automobiles, it was pointed out, and the whole idea would be defeating the original purpose of having a well laid-out civic centre. The park was originally designed for a population of between 3,000 and 5,000 people, one spokesman said, but the city has grown so tremendously that on some days it is not big enough to handle the large crowds.

Veterans' Pensions

Matter of veterans' pensions also came under fire, and members went on record as favoring a resolution calling for payment of a pension to both husband and wife when the former reaches the age of 70, regardless of the age of the wife.

William Kane, secretary-manager of the Legion, reported that a resolution had gone forward from a zone meeting in Armstrong last Sunday, calling for the Dominion Command to organize a "lobbying" group during the present session of parliament.

Mr. Kane also reported that the recent poppy campaign had resulted in a net profit of about $7,500. Gross sales had amounted to $11,050.10, he said, while the cost of poppies totalled around $3,500.

During the reading of the financial report, it was revealed the Legion had a net profit of about $7,500 during the nine months of the year. Operation of the club was also discussed, and a veteran of Great War I declared that only about ten per cent of the total membership was responsible for the club having a bad name. He suggested that the executive take a firm stand and that the members who are causing trouble should be barred from the club. This met with the hearty approval of the large number present at the meeting.

SKI SCHOOL BEING MOVED TO KELOWNA AREA

Valley instructors attending the Silver Star Ski School under Peter Vajda, chief instructor of the Canadian Amateur Ski Association, have become so far advanced during the first three days of the course, the school is being moved to Black Knight Mountain, Kelowna, for the balance of the week, it was announced today.

Local ski officials are looking for as many ski beginners as possible turning up at the Kelowna Ski Bowl on Friday, Saturday and Sunday so that Vajda's 15 pupils may demonstrate their worth and receive their certificates. Instruction is free.

TRADE BOARD
RE-AFFIRMS
TAX STAND

Members Opposed to B.C. Sales Tax for Paying Educational Costs

The Kelowna Board of Trade's stand on sales tax was re-affirmed at an executive meeting Tuesday night when the matter was briefly discussed.

The Board is opposed to any kind of a sales tax for educational purposes. It feels, in common with the City of Kelowna, that land is over-taxed for school purposes and would prefer to have school costs paid out of general revenue.

Date for the annual meeting of the Board was set by the executive for January 4, at the Royal Anne Hotel. Arrangements are being made to have a guest speaker.

Enforcement of the curfew law and establishment of lookout points overlooking the city and its environs were subjects brought up at the last meeting—after discussion were left over for the attention of the incoming executive.

BYATT HEADS
OYAMA LEGION

Members Deplore Rising Cost of Living and Urge Larger Pensions

OYAMA—The annual meeting of the Oyama Branch of the Canadian Legion was held on Wednesday, December 3, in the Legion rooms.

Following officers were elected for the coming year: president, H. W. Byatt; vice president, F. H. Boyer, of Okanagan Centre; 2nd vice president, R. Allingham; treasurer, R. A. Flavel.

Executive: A. W. Gray, W. Hayward, R. Clardige, K. Giffell, A. Spencer; secretary, E. A. Lees.

R. Clardige will be in charge of the entertainment committee with M. Dewar and B. Gray assisting.

A resolution was passed at the annual meeting deploring the lack of adequate provision made by the Dominion government in respect to cost of living, pensions, widows' pensions and veterans allowances, etc. The secretary was instructed to write to D. Fulton, M.P., for Kamloops Division, in the absence of a member for Yale at the present time.

Sam Orloski was given permission to build a temporary septic tank on his property at 480 Osprey Avenue, when the application was reviewed by city council Monday night.

OVER THE FENCE

"You know," said the Old Timer this morning, "it is a little funny to read some of the expressions of labor leaders and politicians in the Old Country just now.

"Everybody is scolding the workers for what they call 'the universal reluctance to do a hard day's work.' Yet I wonder if some of that universal reluctance doesn't stem from the things the same labor leaders and politicians have been telling them in the past?

"In the past they were told that they were the victims of the planlessness and exploitation by monopoly capitalism. All they had to do to attain ease and luxury was to put the socialists in power, so that everything could be planned and there would be no more exploitation. And now when they tell them they have to work harder and longer hours and do without more than ever, it doesn't sound much like the pie in the sky they were promised so often.

"Maybe our present system isn't perfect. I'm not saying it is, and I think the government, and industry, and labor unions, should be working together all the time to improve it and make it work better and produce more and give everybody a better share of what is produced. But I think it is a better system than anything the planners can dream up, and if you keep your eyes open to what is going on around the world you are not likely to come to any other conclusion."

(The views of the Old Timer are presented weekly in this newspaper under the sponsorship of the British Columbia Federation of Trade and Industry.) F-21 had amounted to $745,220. The Vernon figure for the first three months of operation was $57,000.

Many Applications

Mr. Gawthrop said that the department had been swamped by zoning applications, and had to start a priority list. There are sufficient applications for zoning by-laws and regulations to keep the planning division busy for a year.

Many shacks and shack-stores have been prevented from erection in the residential areas in the short time the regulations have been operating. Sufficient mercantile and industrial areas have been set aside for the purpose.

Detailed water rights survey of Grandview Plateau is practically completed. It is on the list for consideration in regard to the application of the Prairie Farms Rehabilitation Act.

The Stevens property, Cawston benches and Southern Okanagan projects were all discussed in relation to the P.F.R.A. and the Veterans' Land Act administration. A P.F.R.A. office has been opened at Kamloops.

C. C. Kelley, provincial soil surveyor, said that further soil survey work had been requested for the Stevens area, but had not yet been accomplished owing to insufficient staff. The meeting was informed that the small holdings project at Okanagan Falls was being furthered and should be offered to the public at an early date.

Development of a parks policy in the whole region was discussed in various phases, from small one-acre roadside reservations for free tourist camping, to the setting aside of large areas of no great agricultural worth for national or provincial parks. A committee was set up to bring in recommendations for the next meeting.

Mr. O'Meara emphasized the importance attached to the deliberations and actions of regional advisory committees by the administration in Victoria, making particular reference to these of region No 3 committee.

Mr. Gawthrop explained the history of the Bureau of Reconstruction from a cabinet council to its present status. Town and community planning is now within the province of the regional planning division, department of municipal affairs, industrial development and planning and considerations of future welfare of the province come within the scope of the regional development division, department of trade and industry.

Regional advisory committees and community committees are the means through which such extra departmental matters may be forwarded to the division in Victoria and from it be channelled to the department concerned, Mr. Gawthrop said.

The increase in population of the region, amounting to some 20,000 people since the 1941 census, received consideration. Particular reference was made to the fact that irrigation acreage in the region is practically the same as before the population increase. There was a small actual net increase of some 268 acres since 1939 in the whole area from Grindrod to the Border, including Keremeos and Cawston, it was reported.

A map was produced showing the location of the irrigated acreage in the region, as well as the location of land which was considered by individuals as potentially irrigable. Areas to which water could be pumped were also shown.

The whole question of population and utilization of land was referred to a sub-committee for further development.

Don Ellis of Kamloops In Kelowna District Following Up Tracks of Cats

One of the Interior's best-known cougar hunters, Don Ellis, Kamloops game warden, and his son, Buddy, are in the Kelowna district tracking down cats. All day yesterday they were in the Joe Rich district, but results of their search were not immediately known.

The Kamloops game warden is expected to return to his home shortly. The men are using a dog that has taken part in only a few kills. As soon as the assistant shows he is capable of handling the dog it is believed the warden will pull out for home.

The local game warden, W. R. Maxson, was unable to say how long the hunt would last. He said there were fresh tracks of cougar reported from Scotty Creek yesterday morning. "I hope the hunters get 'em," he commented.
